SANDY OSBORN (USEF "S")
FIX-A-TEST CLINIC
November 5&6, 2016

Sandy Osborn is a USEF "S" judge (to Grand Prix), and USDF Gold and Silver Medalist. In her early career, she trained with Sarah Geikie, Kathy Connelly, Robert Dover, Jessica Ranshousen, and Gerd Reuter. For eight years she was the Director of Equitation at the University of Massachusetts. She has studied with Roel Theunissen since 1996 and under his tutelage produced her own horses to Grand Prix. She moved to Georgia to continue working with Roel and Adam Lastowka in 2007. She is now based at Ashland Farm in Covington, GA. Her correct foundation, willingness to work with a wide variety of horses, and clear teaching have led to success for her eventer and dressage-only students alike.

The MSEDA Fix-A-Test clinic will help you work on improving your scores, whether for US Dressage Nationals the following weekend or your next eventing season. On Saturday, plan to warm up your horse in advance of your ride time, which is the time you will ride a test of your choosing. Sandy will judge your test with a scribe and then go over it with you. You will have a lesson for an additional 25-30 minutes afterward. On Sunday, you will have a 45-minute lesson, during which you will be able to ride the test again if you choose.

Location: Land's End Farm, 4407 West Highway 42, Goshen, KY 40026
